

TRAINING WORKSHOP ON SOCIAL AND ETHICAL ISSUES (SEI) ORIENTATION AT NNIN SITES

January 22, 2010
Cornell University, Ithaca

Thursday, January 21, 2010

Arrival of the participants at the Statler Hotel

7:00 P.M.                      Dinner at the Statler Hotel: Rowe Room

Friday, January 22, 2010 at 340 Duffield Hall

8:00-8:45 A.M.              Breakfast and Registration

8:45 -9:00                      Welcome by Sandip Tiwari, NNIN Director

9:00-9:15                      Workshop Overview by Katherine McComas, NNIN-SEI Coordinator

9:15-10:45                    Introduction of Participants and Sharing of SEI Orientation Efforts at NNIN sites: Everyone will have about five minutes to introduce themselves and talk about the SEI orientation at their respective sites.

10:45-11:00                  Break

11:00-12:00                  Presentation of SEI Orientation Piloted at Cornell by Debasmita Patra

12:00-1:00                      Lunch at Duffield Hall

1:00-2:30                      Discussion of SEI by other NNIN sites:

1:00-1:30                      Domingo A. Ferrer, UT-Austin: Risks, regulations and environmental outcomes in nanomaterials workplace

1:30-2:00                      Deborah Bassett, U of Washington: A speech code of SEI among scientists and engineers

2:00-2:30                      Robert McGinn, Stanford: Ethics and nanotechnology: From views of researchers to a guide for researchers

2:30-2:45                      Break

2:45-3:30                      Preparing for FAQs in SEI: Debasmita Patra initiates the discussion

3:30-4:00                      Feedback, Future Steps, and Wrap Up: Katherine McComas initiates the discussion

4:00                                  Departure